SuperShuttle International is awarded GSA contract to transport government employees

PHOENIX (January 24, 2012) The US Government Service Administration (GSA) has awarded a transportation contract to Veolia Transportation's On Demand division for the transportation of government employees. The service offerings will include both SuperShuttle shared ride van service and ExecuCar, SuperShuttle Internationals' town car fleet.

How it works:

- All government employees can book SuperShuttle directly through the GSA website
- SuperShuttle and ExecuCar service can be identified by GSA Schedule number GS-33F-0061X
- SuperShuttle can also be located by key words such as "Shared-Ride," "Reduce Carbon Footprint," "Cost Efficient" and "Receive airline miles/points."

SuperShuttle has a negotiated rate with GSA to provide a ten percent discount on all services across the country.

Government employees can earn points and miles with the most airline partners in the ground transportation nationwide including Delta Air Lines, Frontier Airlines, Southwest Airlines, United Airlines and US Airways when booking reservations online.

For more information go to GSA eLibrary and search GS-33F-0061X. Booking link available within schedule pricelist.
